

Week in Review and Lookahead

Friday, December 9, 2022

As we approach the end of 2022, the GLT team is getting ready for the 2023 construction season. Improving accessibility on the Green Line will continue to be a priority for GLT, and we have several projects kicking off in 2023, including the D Branch Station Accessibility Improvements project, that will upgrade accessibility for our riders.

D Branch Station Accessibility Improvements

- ✓ This Week | Preparations continued for the D Branch Station Accessibility Improvements project. This project will deliver upgrades to the Waban, Eliot, Chestnut Hill, and Beaconsfield stations, which will help make the D Branch the first fully accessible branch of the Green Line
- Lookahead | The GLT team is looking forward to breaking ground on these important upgrades in 2023
